SCHOOL AND ALUMNI NOTES

William John McConnell, '00, former mayor of Franklin, Pa., died in that city, Monday, October 19. The cause of his death was bronchial trouble. He was born June 24, 1877, in Franklin, Pa., the son of William J. and Annette (Cochran) McConnell. From the public schools of his native town, he entered Cheltenham Military Academy and, on graduating from this school entered Yale Law School. During his active life, which was spent in his native town, he had always taken an interest in municipal affairs. He served for five years on the City Council of Franklin, and was elected mayor of the town in 1906.
